Notice from Claims Processing Facility, Inc.
Bondex Trust, Eagle-Picher Trust, Keene Trust, Raytech Trust, UGL Trust
COVID-19 Procedural Modifications Extension

September 28, 2020

Due to the continuing hardships resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic, the Claims Processing Facility, Inc. ("CPF") client Trusts' Trustees: Specialty Products Holding Corp. Asbestos Personal Injury Settlement Trust ("Bondex Trust"), Eagle-Picher Industries, Inc. Personal Injury Settlement Trust ("EPI Trust"), Keene Creditors Trust ("Keene Trust"), Raytech Corporation Personal Injury Settlement Trust ("Raytech Trust"), United Gilsonite Laboratories Asbestos Personal Injury Trust ("UGL Trust") each a "Trust" and collectively the ("CPF Trusts") will each extent its temporary suspension of notarization requirements (including a release or affidavit) as specifically set forth in detail in the Notice dated March 27, 2020 as follows:

For UGL Trust to November 18, please see this Notice posted at www.ugltrust.com for specific information as to this November 18 extension.

For the Bondex Trust, EPI Trust, Keene Trust and Raytech Trust the extension is now to December 31, 2020.

Additionally, provided the claimant's law firm has entered an electronic filer agreement with the Trusts and CPF will continue at least through the above stated dates for each respective Trust to accept documents signed using a commercially reasonable e-signature program. Claimants' law firms should coordinate submission of documents signed using a commercially reasonable e-signature program with CPF. For jurisdictions that allow the electronic notarization, the Trusts would prefer you use the e-notary option. Law firms shall continue to maintain the audit trail for all electronic signatures. The Raytech and Keene Trusts have decided to accept commercially reasonable e-signature programs as a matter of policy regardless of duration of COVID extensions.

Deadlines imposed by the Trusts Asbestos Claims Resolution Procedures and Trust Distribution Procedures, as applicable, Trusts' policy or procedures are tolled from March 23,2020 when the COVID-19 Period began as defined in prior March 27, 2020 Notice until each Trusts above stated COVID extension. The individual Trusts will assess whether to extend the tolled COVID-19 Period again before their most recent extension expires.

These provisions will apply until further notice from the Trusts. The individual Trusts may prospectively revert to its prior policies and may subsequently require that the original signatures be obtained for documents submitted with electronic signatures.

If there are any questions or concerns, please contact Melanie Impastato or Teena Mandele at melanie.impastato@cpf-inc.com or teena.mandele@cpf-inc.com. If there are technical questions on electronic notifications, ACH payments or use of e-signature programs, please contact Nevin Govan at nevin.govan@cpf-inc.com.

Our continued best regards to you and your families and clients and know we are here to work with you to continue to make claims processing as efficient as possible in these extraordinary times. Stay safe and healthy.

Yours truly,

Melanie K. Impastato
